International Management (CEMS MIM)

The University of Cologne's M.Sc. in International Management and CEMS Master's is designed to provide you with excellent academic and practical training, together with an international focus for your future career in a global business environment.

WHAT IS THE CEMS NETWORK? This network is a global alliance of 30 leading business schools across 5 continents, more than 70 multinational corporations and seven social partners that together offer the CEMS Master's in International Management (MIM). We are a founding member – and the only German member – of the CEMS alliance.

The CEMS MIM, top-ranked in the Financial Times Masters in Management Ranking, is a pre-experience postgraduate degree. It is open to top-class, internationally minded, multilingual students enrolled in the M.Sc in International Management programme – one of the CEMS member schools. classes relevant to future PHD-studies to distinguished scholars.

The University of Cologne – a founding member of the CEMS Alliance – is the only German university to deliver the prestigious CEMS Master's in International Management degree. In Cologne, we cooperate closely with our corporate partners. If you are interested in international management and in a programme that prepares you for a position in a multinational enterprise, CEMS MIM is the perfect choice for you.

AN OPPORTUNITY NOT TO BE MISSED! Learn to apply the latest research and appropriate solutions to questions with practical, real-world relevance on courses at your home and partner universities. Develop an understanding of the role of leadership in different intercultural environments and effective approaches to strengthening ethical behaviour in business.

Reflect on your own conceptions of leadership and relate them to current positions and arguments discussed in academic literature and case studies.

Discuss current topics of relevance to international companies (strategy, organisation, personnel, business ethics, etc.) with CEMS members from all over the world; learn econometric methods and analyse the economic situation of global companies.

As the University of Cologne is state-funded, there are no tuition fees, just a biannual "semester contribution" of slightly more than 250 euros, which includes the semester ticket for public transport throughout North Rhine-Westphalia. So, with us, you can invest in an excellent education – and your professional future – without paying a fortune.

PRACTICAL RELEVANCE: As a student of the WiSo Faculty, you benefit from an approach that is based on theory and methods, combining both research and teaching with practical elements. The teaching at our faculty has benefited from many years of experience in working with companies and visiting lecturers from different professional fields. These are professionals and managers who bring important industry experience to the programmes, resulting in sector-specific, up-to-date programme content for our students. This ensures that the programmes reflect the real world and that they thus combine the practical and the theoretical, whilst also promoting knowledge-sharing between you and companies.
